

100

The UW Department of Surgery, established in 1924, celebrated its centennial in 2024

University of Wisconsin
Department of Surgery

BY THE NUMBERS 2024

$131 Million
NIH funding

over the last 10 years
(6th-most in the nation)

1930s

Dr. Frederic Mohs, general surgeon, develops Mohs Surgery, the most precise, tissue-sparing method for the treatment of basal cell and squamous cell carcinomas

155
TRAINEES

including fellows, residents, and medical students

139

ADVANCED PRACTICE
PROVIDERS

75

Clinical Trials

26 NAMED

CHAIRS & PROFESSORSHIPS

#12

NIH funding rank among academic surgery departments nationwide

214

Grants Submitted

225 Research Staff

$115 Million

Clinical Revenue
Generated in FY24

$18 Million

Total Research
Funding in FY24

11

FELLOWSHIP
PROGRAMS
18 TOTAL FELLOWS

49

Active Research Labs

11 DIVISIONS

55%

11 OF 20 DIVISION CHAIRS
AND VICE CHAIRS ARE FEMALE

379

PUBLICATIONS

4 RESIDENCY
PROGRAMS

100 TOTAL RESIDENTS

$3.82 MILLION

Philanthropic Dollars
Raised in FY24

90,492

PATIENTS SEEN BY OUR PROVIDERS

1986

UW Solution, the gold standard for organ preservation used in transplants around the world, is developed by Folkert Belzer, chair of the department, and James Southard, UW-Madison biochemist

159 Full-time Faculty