

100

The UW Department of Surgery, established in 1924, celebrated its centennial in 2024

10 DIVISIONS

53%

10 OF 19 DIVISION CHAIRS AND VICE CHAIRS ARE FEMALE

University of Wisconsin Department of Surgery

BY THE NUMBERS 2025

$135 Million

NIH funding

over the last 10 years
(7th-most in the nation)

122

TRAINEES

including fellows, residents, and medical students

361

PUBLICATIONS

3

RESIDENCY PROGRAMS

84 TOTAL RESIDENTS

1930s

Dr. Frederic Mohs, general surgeon, develops Mohs Surgery, the most precise, tissue-sparing method for the treatment of basal cell and squamous cell carcinomas

125

ADVANCED PRACTICE PROVIDERS

48

Clinical Trials

$2.27 MILLION

Philanthropic Dollars Raised in FY24

23 NAMED CHAIRS & PROFESSORSHIPS

65,542

PATIENTS SEEN BY OUR PROVIDERS

#14

NIH funding rank among academic surgery departments nationwide

115

Grants Submitted

$14.5 Million

Total Research Funding in FY24

119

Research Staff

9

FELLOWSHIP PROGRAMS

15 TOTAL FELLOWS

$103 Million

Clinical Revenue Generated in FY24

37

Active Research Labs

1986

UW Solution, the gold standard for organ preservation used in transplants around the world, is developed by Folkert Belzer, chair of the department, and James Southard, UW-Madison biochemist

124

Full-time Faculty